Brazen femme : queering femininity (Book, 2002) [WorldCat.org]

Instead Brazen Femme offers precious glances of the often nebulous, varied essences of femme. These writings demonstrate that femme means altering and reinventing femininity to fit being queer. They celebrate the constant shape-shifting contradictions that make femme so difficult to define and show how a femme's transformational power is as much a survival tactic as a source of identity.

The Super Feminine Lesbian - Books in Canada - Review

The central argument of this article is that from an affective theory of queer femme as assemblage, we can better understand both queer femme identity and the attachments to femininity that people maintain more generally, without relying on a binary logic that proclaims femininity as only disempowering or
