Mulholland Dive contains three short stories, none of them featuring any of Michael Connelly's previous characters (Bosch, Haller, McEvoy). I liked it okay -- but I was also too familiar with those characters by Connelly, and I felt like something is missing in these stories. "Cahoots", the first story, was my least favorite.

Three decent short stories featuring the Harry Bosch character: Suicide Run, Cielo Azul, and One-Dollar Jackpot. The first and third are interesting procedurals with a bit of skill and twist. The second is a more hard-hitting psychological reflection - notable also for being a first person narrat...
